If patient is a minor and 14 or older, Alaska state law requires the patient must sign to authorize the release of any drug and alcohol or reproductive information.

Prohibition on re-disclosure: This information has been disclosed to you from records whose confidentiality is protected by federal law. Federal Regulations (42 CFR Part 2) prohibit you from making any further disclosure of this information except with the specific written authorization of the person to whom it pertains. A general authorization for the release of medical or other information if held by another party is not sufficient for this purpose. Federal regulations restrict any use of the information to criminally investigate or prosecute any alcohol or drug abuse patient. Federal regulations state that any person who violates any provisions of this law shall be fined not more than $500 in the case of a first offense and not more than $5,000 in the case of each subsequent offense.

This Release of Information facilitates compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA), Standards for Privacy of Individually Identifiable Health Information (Privacy Standards), 45 CFR 160 and 164, and all federal regulations and interpretive guidelines promulgated thereunder. The Authorization for Release of Information must state that once the requested PHI is disclosed, the PHI's recipient may re-disclose, therefore the Privacy Regulations may no longer permit it.
